

The Default Question

Reflection Card for Lesson 1 — Why Retirement Is the Most Dangerous Beginning

Maheer's line in Lesson 1: "If you do not treat retirement as a beginning that needs design, it will become a default that runs on the rules that made you tired in the first place."

THE REFLECTION

What default am I about to slide into if I do not design something else?

ONE SPECIFIC PATTERN I HAVE ALREADY NOTICED

Name one habit, mood, or rhythm that has shown up in the last thirty days that points toward a default — not a design.
